From Father Andrew

¥

Thank you to everyone who participated in the gala. It was a wonderful experience to share our rich life here at St. Mary's with each other and our wider community. We are within $2,000 of our $15,000 challenge. Can you help us meet our goal? This will put on very sure footing as we venture into the next phase of this capital campaign.

I wish our mothers a very blessed Mother's Day. Thank you!

-Fr. Andrew

Save the Date: July 16–20

This year's assembly will take place right here at home! Please plan to show them the wonderful hospitality for which we are known.

This is a time to explore our faith, Worship as a united Church with our Metropolitan and bishops, learn from one another and grow in our mission to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. As the third Assembly in a series of many to come, it stands as a testament to our enduring faith and commitment to reflecting on the presence of God in our midst.

Thank you for your generosity!

For May, the month of Mary, all parishioners are invited to pray each day to the Mother of God Searcher for the Lost, that she may continue to draw her children back to her Son and to the church. Let us pray in a particular way for our parish: that we may inspired both to invite and to welcome those who are seeking the Lord in our community.

Family Camp

Annual Family, Liturgy & Life Camp

August 3-8, 2025 | Cedar Lake, Indiana

Daily community prayer and opportunities for confession and singing Mornings will feature programming stratified by age, including babysitting available for infants and toddlers. This year's theme will look at the liturgy through the lens of John Paul II's Orietnale Lumen Afternoons will be mostly free, allowing time for sports, games, swimming, naps, and socializing. After dinner, we'll gather around the campfire and/or spend time in the rec room playing games and end the day with Compline. https://www.parma.org/familycamp.
